

– James 1.16-17 –
Words to Teens
Every Good Gift

James 1:16 Do not be deceived, my beloved brethren. 17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and comes down from the Father of lights, with whom there is no variation or shadow of turning.

- * What do all the major temptations for girls concern?
- * As young ladies, what is the question you must answer?
- * How does the Bible answer that question?
- * Why does James say, “Do not be deceived”?
- * What do Satan’s lies always boil down to?
- * How does Satan always present his way and God's way?
- * How does “following your heart” typically end up for girls?
- * Do these girls end up happy?
- * What is different about genuinely happy girls? What did they not have, and what did they have?
- * Those who are happy in marriage, how were they before marriage?
- * What is the connection between happiness and hardship?
- * What does discontentment flow from?
- * What was the essence of the girl Solomon told his son to stay away from?
- * What makes life complicated, and what makes it simple?
- * What kind of girl gives off a special kind of beauty?
- * What happens when you fake this kind of beauty?
- * What are some questions to ask yourself?